In her speech, Pn Shalina Azman congratulated UTM for taking the initiative to organize the inaugural course on Endowment Management, which is open to attendees from UTM, other universities and the general public.

She felt that the course can provide a platform for those managing endowments to share ideas and good practices, as good governance in endowment management is the key to the success of endowment in perpetuity.

Accompanied by Tan Sri Abdul Halim Ali and Datuk Prof Ir Dr Wahid Omar, Pn Shalina Azman then gave out the scholarships to students who are studying in various fields such as Bio Medicine, Engineering, Accounting and Land Administration & Development, whose scholarship application were successful.

Tabung Biasiswa Endowmen Azman Hashim was set up with an endowment of RM30 million by Yayasan Azman Hashim. To-date, RM20 million has already been disbursed to UTM. Interest income earned from the endowment is given out as scholarships to outstanding UTM undergraduates, and the model should sustain the endowment in perpetuity.
