Yayasan Azman Hashim, headed by Amcorp Group Berhad’s Executive Chairman Tan Sri Azman Hashim, is a non-profit charitable institution.

The grant of RM70,000 consists of RM50,000 scholarship and RM20,000 loan. Apart from the financial assistance provided by ASG, recipients will also benefit from employment opportunities with Amcorp Group of Companies upon their completion of the ACCA qualification, as the Group is recognized as an Approved Employer – Platinum Level by ACCA, United Kingdom.

Among the 4 recipients, Siti Nur Ain Binti Zainal and Wan Zulaikha Binti Wan Zulkiflee are from UiTm Shah Alam while Chan Ker Li and Liaw Yung May are from Sunway College. Accompanying the recipients at the signing ceremony were their parents, Puan Norzaidah Binti Kassim for Siti Nur Ain, Mr Chan Siew Wai for Chan Ker Li, En Wan Zulkiflee Bin Wan Ismail for Wan Zulaikha and Madam Choong Li Li for Liaw Yung May.

The signing ceremony, where the recipients and their parents signed the agreements to signify their acceptance of the scholarship offered to them, was witnessed by Encik Shahman

Azman. He later presented to each of the recipients, a cheque of RM20,000, being the first installment of the Grant.

The Amcorp Study Grant, established in 2011, is a platform for Amcorp to give back to society by offering a scholarship cum loan to outstanding students to pursue the ACCA qualification in Malaysia. Through ASG, Amcorp hopes to nurture potential talents and develop them to be exemplary future leaders.

To date, 14 excellent students, have benefited from the ASG. 4 ASG graduate recipients are currently employed as Executives with the Company.
